NOVEMBER MUSTER

In keeping in the spirit of the spooky season, our friend, Jim Hollister, Digital Media, Living History and Historic Weapons Program Coordinator at Minuteman National Historic Park will present us with a spellbinding presentation about paranormal beliefs in Colonial New England, such as witches, demonic manifestations, and how people sought to protect themselves from these entities.

Come if you dare.

Upcoming events, activities and important Company Notes: (Please read)

Battle of Red Horse Tavern

The Battle of Red Horse Tavern is Saturday, October 26, Wayside Inn. There are 2 battles for public viewing, 11:15am and 1:30pm, with a lunch sandwiched in between. This is always a great day with friends, old and new and such an enjoyable day, perfect to send reenactors into winter quarters.

Colonel Dana Rock is the chief organizer to the event.

Due to rising prices, the Inn is looking for donations to help offset the cost of lunch. A donation of any size would be greatly appreciated.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

To put on an event such as Red Horse takes a tremendous amount of effort. It would be great if we could help Colonel Rock out by volunteering to help the event run as smooth as possible.

How can I help? Good question. There are 2 ways,

1. On Friday, Oct. 25th from noon to 3pm you can help rope out parking areas, set up crowd lines, put up signs etc.
2. Saturday, Oct. 26th you can help with parking, registration, staffing the public information table, picket duty and more.

The Red Horse Tavern signup sheet can be found here <https://forms.office.com/r/HcjfpK3H40>.

Bonus for volunteering, the Inn will provide volunteers with a stew lunch. (Note: due to rising prices, the Inn is looking for donations to help offset the cost of lunch. A donation of any size would be greatly appreciated)

Please help on Friday, Saturday or both if you can,

DOOR DUTY

The Companies encourage members to serve a Sunday or two on door duty. Door duty is on Sundays from 11:30 AM to 5 PM. If you have never served on door duty, please contact Quartermaster Toth so that you can be trained. You can sign up for door duty on our website. Go to “door duty” and then click on the “sign-up” sheet or click here Door Duty Sign-Up.

As a wonderful benefit of serving at the door, the Inn offers you dinner. The dinner must be taken on the night of your service. (The Inn no longer allows a rain check for your dinner.) So, if you would like to partake in a meal, you need to stay there for dinner or, the Inn would be happy to pack up your order in a to go bag that you can take home.

Please also sign the big old book as a record that you volunteered that night. The book is stored behind the main desk.

Any questions can be directed to Quartermaster Toth by email at quartermaster@sudburyminutemen.org

Thank you in advance!
